SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

Local traders again had their eyes on far-away Argentine yesterday, and they saw no encouragement to buy wheat. News of heavy rains came through houses claiming direct connections with Rosario, Buenos Ayres and other Argentine points, Liverpool and other foreign markets continued to accept the information as true, and there was a consequent easing off in values. Trading here was not heavy and was mostly of a scalping nature. Ranges were extremely narrow. Domestic news was bearish, North-western farmers are rushing their wheat to market as fast as the shortage of cars will permit. Minneapolls and Duluth receipts were much heavier than last year. Corn was the leading feature of yesterday's local market, Local and primary receipts were light, and there was a good cash demand from Southern points. Early buying was good, but later there was profit-taking. Both Dec. and May railied at the

Dec. corn opened 1-16c up and closed with a gain of 1/6%c. May corn opened 1/4 up and closed 14c up.

May outs opened 14c up and closed unchanged to 1-16c off.

The produce market was practically unchanged all around on fruit and lower on vegetables, except potatoes and cabbage, Which were steady, Trust company stocks were the feature of the Stock Exchange sessions. All sales were at fair advances over Tuesday's figures. St. Louis Transit was about steady and United Railways preferred higher. There was good volume of counter transactions at the banks and a fair outside demand. Discount rates were easy between 5 and 6 per cent.

The local market for spot cotton was quiet and unchanged. Bank clearings were $7,082,623; balances $834,719.

WHEAT WENT LOWER ON BEARISH REPORTS.

SPRING-CROP MOVEMENT IS LARGE.

Corn Was Higher on Light Receipts and Good Demand for Cash Grain.

Yesterday's wheat market was within exremely narrow confines. Trading was not cavy, and though there was an abundance of bearish news the decline in values was triffing. To a certain extent this was due o the strength in corn, but it was more largely due to the nature of the pit trading, which was confined mainly to scalping and whipsawing by small speculators. Again the most bearish news came from he Argentine, where heavy rains were said to be general. Foreign markets were all lower, and domestic conditions were not enouraging to the bulls. There was plenty of wheat in sight. The Northwest movement of the spring crop was larger than for of the spring crop was larger than for many days, and receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth were heavy. Winter-wheat States were sending in big consignments, which swelled the primary and local re-

Dec. wheat opened 1-16c up and sold at The, 72c, 725,725c, 725c, 725c, 724c, 724c, 724c, 724c, 724c, 726c, 715c, 715c

May wheat sold at 75½c, 75½c, 75½c, 75½c and 75c.

Corn was decidedly strong during the greater portion of the session, and, though there was a decline near the close, the net result of the day was a fair advance. There was a good outside cash demand for corn, and the European —arkets were higher. Both local and primary receipts were lighter than on the corresponding day last year. The early buying was heavy. Toward the end of session there was some profittaking, which caused values to ease off, but a raily quickly followed.

Dec. corn opened 1-16c up and sold at 55½c, 55½c, at 40% (940).c.

GRAIN SPECULATION

CONFINED TO CORN. LIGHT RECEIPTS, FIRM CA-BLES, CAUSED ADVANCE.

Support of the Cereal Was Strong Enough to Prevent Slump in Wheat and Oats.

Chicago, Oct. 20.-Duliness and small professional trading characterized business on the Board of Trade to-day. Dec. wheat closed 4c lower, Dec. corn 49% higher, and Dec. oats 15c up. Provisions closed unchanged to 214c higher. Wheat.

Weakness in wheat cables and continued reports of heavy rains in Argentina influ-enced wheat holders to sell and encouraged short sellers. The eash business was also slow, and both Northwestern and primary receipts were considerably increased. This receipts were considerably increased. This brought an opening for Dec. 14/24 lower at 704c. Only the gaming strength in the corn pit prevented a decided slump in wheat, for, though in the face of these bearish factors, Dec. sold up to 70%c, later, when duliness was more pronounced, it sagged back quickly to 70%c. The outside markets were doing very little business, and Dec. was the weaker future, ruling relatively &c to 16c. very little business, and Dec. was the weaker future, ruling relatively %c to %c lower than May. Late in the day there was a small reaction on export news, and Dec. closed weak, %c lower at 70%270%c. Local receipts were 132 cars one of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 622 cars, making a total for the 2 points of 755, against 638 last week, and 656 a year ago. Primary receipts were 1.185,000 bu., compared with 841,000 bu, a year ago. Scaboard clearances of wheat and flour were 254,000 bu. The seaboard reported 58 loads taken for export.

Corn.

Corn was strong the first hour, as the result of light receipts and firm cables, which frightened the short interest and influenced hayers. Dec. opened steady, but soon advanced by. Most of this buying, however, was professional, and a good deal of profit taking and a dull turning market, without any noticeable support weakened Dec. till it sold at 57c. Some covering at this figure brought a slight improvement, and Dec. closed firm, 142% for higher, at 571/2c. Receipts were 199 cars.

Oats. There was less speculative interest shown in oats to-day, and corn was the influential factor. Trade was nearly all local, with an early buoyant tone on the corn advance. Apparently early purchases, which brought a rise in this pit were intended only for quick profits. Dec. opened unchanged, fluctuated narrowly and closed steady, the higher. Receipts were 110 cars. Provisions. Provisions.

Provisions were more active than at any time for a week. There was an early small demand, which kept prices up, despite a sagging hog market. Later everything turned dull, and January pork closed unchanged at $4.90 Jan, lard $2.5c higher, at $8.70, and Jan, ribs $2½c up, at $7.70.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat 165 cars; corn 120 cars; oats 115 cars; hogs $1,000 head.

New York, Oct. 20.—The cotton market opened steady, with prices 1 to 4 points higher on light room and some foreign buying, based on better ruling of the English market than expected any on reports that planters were beginning to hold back cotton. During the next haif-hour prices steadily improved on seneral buying, Jan selling at 7.62b before this demand fell off. But before midday profit-taking by sealpers and a falling off in outside buying allowed the market to sag back toward the opening prices, and at noon the market tonded toward yeakness in the absence of speculation. Late cables from Liverpool were encouraging, but falled to stimulate new buying here. Early in the afternoon the market became weak under active selling for both accounts, led by an early buyer. Prices broke point after point, with Jan finally down to 7.42b before buying for profits and a reaction turned the course of the market. Hig estimates for to-morrow's receipts, fine weather news and lig crop estimates combined to undermine buil confidence.

Trading was heavy on the decline, which represented a loss since the selling movement set to be of the market to sag the selling for lost and a reaction. Trading was heavy on the decline, which represented a loss since the selling movement set to be selling for lost and a reaction. Trading was heavy on the decline, which represented a loss since the selling movement set to be selling for lost and the wheat break caused a setback. Stockers and Feetrs—There was a pretty liberal supply of stockers of common to fair quality, and a light run of good-weight, good-quality, leaders, Order business was very slow and almost wholly confined to requests for good colored weighty feeders. The trade was generally steady on this class. The stocker end of the business on cowshelfers and steers was about as dull as it has been any time this season. Traders are slowed to take told because they see no definite outlet. Prices are 126725 lower than a week ago on all stock cattle, except stock bulls, which are full stock cattle, except stock bulls, which are fully steady. A good many of the right plain stocker kinds are being disposed of to cannet bayers, which is the largest source of demand for this grade.

FIGGS—Again the hog market opened lower. The good medium and heavy hogs were about 5c lower on the early market, but by 10 o'clock were called 5266c lower. Good lights sold only about 1c lower, but the common ones were called 16 lower, and very slow sale. The market was fairly active at the decline, on all weight hogs or good quality. City butchers bought several loads, but this demand was not as large as usual, leaving the trade on medium and heavy logs practically in the hands of the packets. The late market was fully be lower than on Tuesday, but at the close only some common plas and trashy Southwest lights remained unsold.

UNITED PREFERRED WAS IN DEMAND.

Bank and Trust Company Securities Were Bullish Features Yesterday.

Having taken a whirl at tractions Tuesday investors gave the greater portion of their attention to other St. Louis stocks and bonds yesterday. There was still considerable life in Transit, but instead of advancing further the stock dropped back to a point just midway between the highest and lowest marks of the day previous. United Railways preferred was stronger and sold higher at both sessions. Trust company stocks were the favorites yesterday, the most active in the list being Mercantile, Commonwealth and Mississippi Valley. American Exchange was the strongest of the banks. At the morning session this stock was bid up from $274 to $39, and held at $285. In the afternoon it was bought at $280, and $285 was bid for more.
At the opening of the morning session St.

Louis Transit was the first stock mention For awhile it was held at $29.50, but was sold at $29.25, and later at $29, which thereafter was the best bid. United Hallways preferred sold at $2.75, and was held at $2. If it was true as stated that a pool had been formed to buy Transit stock, its operations were carefully concealed. Some of been formed to buy Transit stock, its operations were carefully concealed. Some of those supposed to be in the combination offered the stock down.

The market seemed to follow New York very closely, the decline here being in line with private wire advices received before the morning session.

At the afternoon session Transit dropped still lower. After 755 shares had sold at $29 the best bid obtainable was $23.75, and offers at $29 were ignored.

One of the strongest spots in the miscellaneous list was American Gold Mining, which was bid up from $1.10 to $1.15, with no sellers at that.
